Shortage of school buildings for primary education

†1982. SHRI MANGANI LAL MANDAL: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that there is an acute shortage of school buildings for primary education in the country;

(b) whether it is also a fact that despite making funds available through 'Operation Black Board' in 1987, 'Jila Shiksha Prathamik Karyakarm' in 1994 and 'Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan' in 2001, more than one lakh of primary schools in the country have only one room;

(c) whether it is also a fact that this deplorable situation has come to light through the results of a survey conducted by NIEEPA in all the States and Union Territories in the country; and † Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

(d) if so, the details thereof and the action proposed to be taken by the Government in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMATI D. PURANDESWARI): (a) and (d) National Institute of Educational Planning & Administration has brought out an Analytical Report 2004-05 on Elementary Education in India based on data supplied by States and Union Territories for 581 districts covered under the District Information System for Education (DISE) in which 98122 Government primary school buildings had one classroom. Under the Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan Programme, 97986 school buildings and 468803 additional classrooms have been sanctioned in 2005-06 and 2006-07 to States and Union Territories.
